Title	Camping le Ty-Nadan
Alan Rogers Reference	FR29010
CAMC Reference	B20
General Campsite Description The length will vary according to the type of site. For a half page report this is about 200 words. For a shorter report (e.g. municipal sites) taking a third of a page this should be c.115 words.  This is the 1 st paragraph shown on the website and in the guides.  This should be original copy, not pasted from another source.	Camping le Ty-Nadan is a well organised site set in wooded countryside in southern Brittany, along the bank of the River Elle (renowned for fishing). There are 200 grassy pitches for touring units, many with shade and 67 fully serviced, some with private sanitary facilities. A variety of outdoor family pursuits is on offer, including canoeing, horse riding, walking, mountain biking and rock climbing. An interesting option is excursions on Segway electric vehicles. All activities are supervised by qualified staff. The pool complex with slides and paddling pool is very popular as are the large indoor pool complex and indoor games area. There is an adventure play park and another play park for 5-8 year olds.
Alan Rogers Review This should be original copy, not pasted from another source.	There are tennis courts, table tennis, pool tables and archery. A varied programme of entertainment for all ages is provided all season, including clubs and activities for younger children, teenagers and adults. There are concerts, Breton evenings with hog -roasts, dancing, etc. (be ready to be actively encouraged to join in!). This is a wonderful site for families with children.
