

Guide to campsite photography

We ask for photos of the campsite as images really make the entry stand out and help our readers make informed choices.

Photo Allowance

We add up to 5 images to a standard listing and up to 20 to an enhanced (paid) listing.

Choose a main photo for the front page, something that reflects the site and the remaining images go into the gallery tab for our readers to scroll through.

Tips for Campsite Photography

- Photographs should be clearly re-named with the Alan Rogers number before submission.
- Ideally choose a sunny or bright day to take your photos (we know this isn't always possible, and we can do wonders with photoshop!)
- Take a variety of angles and scenes including:
 - Entrance/Reception
 - Pitches – Hardstandings & Grass
 - Facilities – Dishwashing / Showers (if appropriate!)
 - Leisure Facilities – Pool / Sports Facilities / Games Room / Bar / Restaurant etc.
 - Scenery – Beach / Lake / Mountains etc.
- Avoid close ups of people otherwise you will need to ask individuals to sign an 'Appearance Release Form' which can be obtained from the Alan Rogers 'Assessors portal.'
- Avoid taking photos of number plates or tell people before taking pictures.
- Please send photographs as high resolution as possible. We can't make small images bigger, but we can make large images smaller.
