

Stephen Wills and Karla Baker at the awards

Most Accessible Campsite Award

Winner — La Garangeoire
 Runner-Up — l'Orangerie de Beauregard

Alan Rogers Overall Winner

La Bien-Assise

Caravan and Motorhome Club Overall Winner

Sequoia Parc

FOREIGN TOURING

Several CWG members attended the Alan Rogers and Caravan and Motorhome Club Campsite Awards at the Crowne Plaza hotel during the NCC show. The winning and runner-up campsites from across Europe, in 11 categories, are listed below.

The evening began with a drinks reception and the opportunity to network and meet many of the campsite owners and representatives in attendance, along with the CAMC and Alan Rogers teams. A short presentation followed, which highlighted all aspects of the foreign travel services, some interesting statistics and trends.

Progress and Innovation Award

Winner — Camping Jungfrau
 Runner-Up — Camping Club Les Genets

Welcome Award

Winner — Camping Grubhof
 Runner-Up — Camping l'Isle Verte

Sustainability & Environmental Awareness Award

Winner — Huttovia Europe
 Runner-Up — Camping Seasonova

Small & Charming Campsite Award

Winner — Blarney Caravan Park
 Runner-Up — Camping la Campiña

Dog-Friendly Award

Winner — Domaine Du Logis
 Runner-Up — Camping Le Ventoulou

Family Award

Winner — Europacamping Nommerlayen
 Runner-Up — Camping de l'Etang

Exceptional Services and Facilities Award

Winner — Le Brasilia
 Runner-Up — Vilanova Park

Most Attractive Campsite Award

Winner — Esterel Caravaning
 Runner-Up — Camping Cabuerniga